

COMMUNITY PROFILING
Magang, Daet, Camarines Norte

1. What do people do together?

ans. The people gather to attend church and do its activities. Others participate in barangay programs, and events.

2. Who is respected, feared or considered significant? Why?

ans. The barangay officials specially the Barangay Captain. Second is the church leader

3. How do people get along within the group? Between groups?

ans. The people participate, cooperate and share whatever they know or have.

4. How is the community viewed by the residents?

ans. The residents consider their community as poor, needy and lacking progress

5. How is the community viewed by the outsiders?

ans. It is a poor community where the residents depend mostly in agriculture and subcontracting work to earn a living.

6. How is the community viewed by you?

ans. The community is a poor community. It lacks the local government's support to uplift the lives of the residents. Most of the children suffer malnutrition and are out of the school.

Only a handful of families are economically able.

7. How does the community view outsiders? You?

ans. Outsiders are treated normally. The church is respected in the community.

8. How does the community view new ideas?

ans. The community welcomes new ideas.

9. What are the myths about the area?

ans. Myths are not minded in the community.

10. What do people complain about?

ans. The people complain about their unemployment, malnourishment, lack of health services their shelter and lack of education for their children.

11. What are people proud of or pleased about?

ans. They are proud about their faith in God, the richness of their soil and the beauty of their beaches.

12. When people recently act together to achieve something?

ans. The people act together in conducting the feeding program headed by CCC.

13. Which people have act to

a. To preserve the status quo?

ans. The barangay officials and the church

b. Advocate for change?

ans. The CCC and the barangay officials.

14. Is there anyone in the community trying to identify the needs and potential in the community?

ans. The CCC

15. Who are the people making decisions?

ans. The Barangay officials for the whole Magang.

The CCC pastor for the beneficiaries and the project.

16. What group or people or department are imposing the will on the community?

ans. The local barangay for the whole Magang.

The CCC pastor and its leaders for the beneficiaries.

17. What changes have happened in the area? Who made them? Who opposed them?

ans. There was no recorded significant changes or development in the community.

18. Are there conflict of lifestyles in the community?

ans. None

19. What assumptions or values are indicated by the way group of people live?

ans. None

20. What is the community's first response to illness?

ans. Self- medicate or go to the Barangay Health Center for check ups.

21. What is the smallest decision making unit in the community?

ans. The family

22. What is the dominant and/or preferred learning style in the community?

ans. In the form of training.

23. How do people make important decision in regards to

a. Business-

ans. None owns a business in the community

b. Family

ans. The people consult their church pastor.

24. What evidence of animism did you observe or hear about the community? ans. The worship of idols.

What do people do in response to

a. Sickness

ans. They seek medical help from the Barangay Health Center. Others rely on faith for healing.

b. Loosing things important to them

ans. They tend to look for their lost things.

c. Feeling threatened

ans. They just pray for God's intervention

d. Disagreement in the community ans. They seek higher authority to resolve the disagreement.

e. Disasters

ans. The people pray to God seeking divine intervention.

25. How do people manage conflict?

ans. They talk things out.

26. What is the use of music

a. In worship-

ans. To praise God

b. In secular context

ans. For entertainment

c. In other religious context

ans. To praise God.

d. By age groups

ans. To show off their talents.

NEEDS ASSESSMENT

1. Name of the community

ans. The name of the community is Magang.

2. What community needs are identified?

ans. Job or employment, moral upliftment, education, permanent shelter, and food.

a. How was the community involved in identifying the needs?

ans. They attended the need assessment seminar which helped them fully identify the topmost needs of the community

b. What is the community's view of the needs?

ans. It is something that needs priority.

3. What is already being done to respond to the need?

ans. Plan for a project that will benefit the households in Magang.

4. What resources are available locally to help meet the needs?

ans. Seeds, soil

5. Identify the root causes of worldview, beliefs and values, behavior and attitude that contribute to the community issue.

a. Issue/symptom

ans. Usually political motivation

b. Behavior

ans. The people behave properly.

c. Belief and value

ans. The CCC church

d. worldview

ans. The media

6. Purpose of the project

ans. To lend initial capital for small businesses or home based businesses to the people. Firstly, to those who are members of CCC, secondly to the other people who are not yet members of CCC.

7. Purpose and vision statement for the ministry

Ans. To show God's compassion to the world through the Gospel and the saving grace of Jesus Christ, realizing a total transformation of every family across cultures.

8. Cultural differences

ans. Barangay Magang sits on Traditional vs Innovative Prepared and submitted by:

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'msantiago'.

Maritess F. Santiago

OM,Frontline Social Services